

Como Agua Para Chocolate: "Septiembre"

Dos Voces Poema

Two-Voice Poems are written from two different points of view on the same topic (poem works better if subjects have opposite points of view). Possible subjects could be: boy-girl relationships, baseball-bat, hair straightener-hair, cat-dogs, winter coat-bathing suit, healthy food-junk food, etc.

1. Choose two people or objects that have a relationship
2. Brainstorm some similarities or differences between these two people or objects. Use a Venn Diagram or a T-Chart to organize your ideas (On the back)
3. Some writers prefer to write one side's point of view first. Others prefer to write them as a statement/answer, back-and-forth, however you please!
4. This poem is designed to be read by two voices. Set up the poem so that most of the time one voice is speaking at a time. At times, both voices may be speaking at the same time.

Two-Voice Poems help us look at the world from different perspectives. Use this table to organize your two voices.
